Operations

Established in 1994, the Kingston Local Development Corporation (KLDC) of the City of Kingston is a 501(c)(3) Corporation under the Internal Revenue Code and is governed by an eleven (11) member board made up of the Mayor, residents and business people of the City of Kingston. KLDC Board Membership includes individuals that live in different geographic areas within the boundaries of the City of Kingston and have a number of diversified backgrounds and expertise in areas such as accounting, small business, real estate development, and commercial banking. KLDC Board Members are appointed by the President of the Board. Management/staff appointments to the KLDC of the City of Kingston are made by the President and Board Members of the KLDC. Management/staff are also employees of the City of Kingston Office of Community Development. The Board Members of the KLDC do not receive compensation by the Corporation for their services.

The KLDC of the City of Kingston works closely with Office of Community Development, the Office of Economic Development and Strategic Partnerships as well as additional resource partners to provide greater flexibility in leveraging resources to undertake economic development projects.

Accomplishments

During 2014 the KLDC has continued to administer their loan programs, approving a few small business loans for the expansion of the borrowers business and awarding grants to businesses for façade improvements along the Broadway corridor within the City of Kingston.

The KLDC began working in collaboration with the City of Kingston Office of Community Development to undertake the prevention and elimination of residential slums and blight and to avert deterioration. Enabling a variety of housing opportunities and choices to attract and garner city residents thereby improving quality of life and generating economic opportunity and maintaining and promoting job growth for the overall benefit of the community.
